

Job Posting – Afterschool Leader

Kiwassa Neighbourhood House, a multi-service community agency working in East Vancouver, is recruiting an Afterschool Leader to interact directly with children (ages 6-12) or pre-teens in delivering engaging, active, and developmentally appropriate programs.

Responsibilities:

- Help create and implement age-appropriate activities for children/pre-teens
- Facilitate a hands-on educational and fun experience for children/pre-teens with diverse backgrounds and varying needs
- Create an inclusive environment where children/pre-teens feel welcomed and supported in their learning and development
- Serve as a role model for young children and pre-teens
- Build positive relationships with participating children/pre-teens and their parents/caregivers
- Create structure and teach children/pre-teens new skills which build their competencies

Experience and skills:

- You are reliable, patient, enthusiastic, and enjoy working with children and/or pre-teens
- You have an understanding and cultural fluency in working with racialized newcomers and indigenous families
- You have a creative and energetic approach to engaging children and pre-teens in various learning and play-based activities
- You care about children/pre-teens and are invested in creating engaging learning opportunities for them to thrive
- You have experience working with vulnerable populations
- You are energetic, have a team ethos and enjoy working with other staff

Education:

- Completion of high school (minimum 19 years of age; post-secondary education in related field preferred e.g., social sciences, education, child and youth care; or training and certification in children and/or youth development)
- First-Aid and CPR training considered an asset
- Trauma informed practice and crisis intervention training an asset

Salary:

$20/hr from 2:30 – 5:30 p.m. Monday – Friday.

Recruitment is contingent on completion of a criminal record check. Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis. Please submit a CV and cover letter to Hanieh Khataee, Director of Programs and Operations via email: haniehk@kiwassa.ca
