

LET'S TALK

ABOUT AFFORDABILITY AND “MAKING ENDS MEET” IN VANCOUVER

This is an expensive city. The high cost of living puts pressure on all areas of our lives, and many people are struggling.

DID YOU KNOW?

Almost half of Vancouverites make less than the living wage (the amount needed to afford basic needs like food, housing and transportation).

LET'S TALK ABOUT IT:

The City of Vancouver wants to hear from YOU about how unaffordability affects your life on a day-to-day basis, and your ideas for how the City of Vancouver can make things better.

WHAT: Talk with City of Vancouver staff and tell us your ideas.

WHY: Your input will help shape the development of the City's first Poverty Reduction and Affordability Plan.

WHERE: Kiwassa Neighbourhood House

WHEN: Tuesday, April 30, 2019, 10 am to 1 pm

CAN'T MAKE IT TO THIS EVENT?

Find other in-person events or share your ideas online at:
vancouver.ca/poverty-reduction

